KINGS PRAIRIE

We should all be glad that we will pass a safe and sane holiday where booze and barleycorn have been regulated to the rear and the most glorious New Year will be ushered in as one of the greatest national reformations since Christ walked the earth.

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Jackson died Sunday morning. Funeral service was conducted by Rev. Stribling at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Lawrence Todd, of Tulsa, Okla., is visiting relatives on the Prairie.

The preachers took dinner with Claud Beymer, Sunday.

Aunt Fount Jackson is reported quite ill.

Rev. E. B. Scott returned to his home at Oronogo, Monday. He asserted that he never worked in a meeting where the Christians, regardless of church affiliation, responded so nobly to the help of the Lord as the one just closed.

The two weeks series of meetings at New Liberty church on Kings Prairie conducted by Rev. E. R. Stribling, assisted by Rev. E. B. Scott, of Oronogo, just closed, was conceded to be one of the most successful of any revival held in the church. Fifteen accepted Christ as their personal Savior and several were added to the church, but the lever of success was the rallying of the Christian forces from far and near with a unity of spirit that was far-reaching.

Rev. Scott delivered a message after message that reached the heart and endeared himself to all that came in touch with him. The night services were largely attended. Rev. Thomas Carlin, of the Prairie, delivered the closing sermon, Sunday night, to a large and attentive congregation, closing with a farewell rally of the Christian people. Then let us be thankful that the war is over but the battle for righteousness is still on for the salvation of the millions unsaved.
